ABOUT GOOD-LIFE GOURMET

Welcome to Good-Life Gourmet, originated by Chef Eric C. Korn as a fun-loving, healthy-living, high-end boutique catering company serving Westchester, Southern Connecticut and New York City.

Now, the company is expanding with two sandwich shops “with a difference,” bearing the name of Good-Life Gourmet, opening soon in Irvington and Scarsdale, both at convenient locations.

The “difference” is that the shop in Irvington will offer one gourmet specialty sandwich *du jour (plus a Fluffernutter, described by Chef Korn as “our favorite sandwich growing up”) for take-out, along with one specialty soup and salad, which also rotate daily.

The Scarsdale Good-Life Gourmet offers several gourmet sandwich selections, frequently changed, along with soups and salads, and a pleasant seating area for customers to enjoy their selections in a social environment.

Good-Life Gourmet Meals, a take-home dinner service, is featured at both sandwich shops, offering one original dinner with accompaniments, rotating daily. “It’s just like having your own private chef at home!” says Chef Korn

Creative Goal

To achieve the accolade of “Best Sandwich in Westchester!”
